

DIED AWAY FROM HOME

W. H. Gumm Passed Away at the City Hospital Monday Noon.

Sedalia Capital.

W. H. Gumm, the aged gentleman referred to in this paper Sunday as being sick at the City Hospital, died at noon Monday. Before death came the gentleman was lucid long enough to tell his story to Dr. Cowan and the hospital attendants. He was 76 years old and had been in poor health for years. Some time ago he left his home at Valley Springs, Col., and went to Europe in the hope of finding strength. He had written to his niece, the wife of a Mr. Rains at Koping, Saline county, asking her to make her home with him, promising to surrender his property into the care of Mr. Rains. This arrangement he had hoped to perfect soon. When he reached Chicago on his return from Europe he was too tired to proceed for a few days, and then determined to change his route and come to Sedalia, where he expected to wait until his niece and her husband could come in from Koping.

Mr. Gumm owned a livery stable and considerable property in Valley Springs, and must have had ready means. He said he was without family or kin, except the niece, and it is supposed that his attorney, who lives at Colorado Springs, will be here to arrange the details of the burial and to notify Mrs. Rains of her standing as regards the inheritance.

On Drug Stock Sold.

Receiver, J. R. Meyers, yesterday sold the stock of fixtures of the Ott Drug company to P. H. Rea, of Marshall, Mo. The price paid was $1,750, which is a little less than 10 per cent. of the liabilities of the firm. The expense of the receivership was $683.—Sedalia Capital.

BAKING POWDER

Is the Most Economical

Greater in leavening strength, a spoonful raises more dough, or goes further.

Working uniformly and perfectly, it makes the bread and cake always light and beautiful, and there is never a waste of good flour, sugar, butter and eggs.

While it actually costs less to make a batch of biscuit with the Price Baking Powder than with the so-called cheap powders, there is the additional advantage of better and more healthful food.

NOTE.—Alum powders should not be used, no matter how cheap they are. They induce dyspepsia, liver complaint and kidney trouble.

North and South Road.

Col. A. L. Strang, promoter of the Missouri and Iowa Southern railway, to extend from Sedalia to Miami, via Marshall, has returned to Missouri, after an extended sojourn in the east, but is non-committal as to the outlook for the construction of the line.

A letter has been received here, however, from Col. James Story, a former Sedalian, now in business in New York city, in which he says that Col. Strang has secured the necessary funds for the building of the road, and public announcement to that effect will soon be made, immediately after which the work of construction will begin. Suicide at Miami.

Miss Lou Cravens died at the home of her father, near Miami, Tuesday morning, from the effects of a dose of poison, with suicidal intent. Miss Cravens was well known here, having been employed for a number of years by Schletter & Co. She suffered an attack of brain fever about one year ago, which was the beginning of her mental derangement which resulted in the taking of her own life.

COMMITTEE.Club Day.

The morning session of the Monday Club was devoted to parliamentary drill and business meeting. Mrs. G. S. Hardin, the president, led the drill, and it proved an enjoyable and helpful one.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Prof. T. E. Spencer lectured to the Fiction class in the afternoon. His subject, "Literary Pretences," was treated in an original, interesting and highly entertaining manner.

A large number of visitors were present, among them Mr. Lester Hall, of Kansas City. The graduating class of the High School, with several of the teachers, attended in a body.

The session was opened with a beautiful instrumental solo by Mrs. Edgar M. Place. After the lecture, Miss Clara Frances Brown delighted the club and their visitors with one of her touching contralto solos. The young lady leaves in a few days for Kansas City, where she will study this winter. She will be greatly missed by the musical and literary circles of Marshall.

Returned From Beaumont.
